Michael J. Brescia, MD

“The Nature and Treatment of Human Suffering”

Dr. Brescia is Senior Vice-President and Executive Medical Director of Calvary Hospital in Bronx, New York. He is internationally famous for the invention of the AV Fistula which has saved the lives of many with renal disease. While at the peak of his career in organ transplantation and in response to euthanasia and assisted suicide, he surrendered economic fortunes to develop and create a hospital exclusively devoted to terminal cancer patients.

Dr. Brescia has played an integral role in establishing the pioneering and unparalleled care for patients at the end of life.

SAN JOSÉ CLINIC

For over 80 years, the White Mass, so named by the color worn by those in the healing profession of medicine, gathers health care professionals under the patronage of St. Luke, the “Grand and Glorious Physician”, to ask God’s blessing upon the patient, doctor, nurse, and caregiver alike.

Please join us and wear your white coat!
